The Mayor declared the motion carried.

Dennis White and Chris Gutschow from People Services gave a presentation of the proposal from Peoples Service to take over the City water and sewer operations. There was lengthy discussions over sections of their proposal and what would happen with the existing Water/Sewer department staff. Chris Gutschow explained that the existing staff would need to go through the job application process to be hired by People Services as the City positions would be terminated if People Services took over the operations under contract with the City.

No Action Taken.

Moved by: Ellingson

Seconded by: Rausch

To Adjourn.
