Under Department Reports: Park, Rec & Wellness Director, Jeremy Strub briefed that the summer events are in full swing. Music in the Park started last week and had a great turnout. He also noted that the Jaycee Shelter in the park needs repair. Water & Sewer Superintendent Jim Cooper briefed that the pool meters and meters for watering lawns have been used a lot so far. The sewer plant tie in will hopefully happen the end of this week or next week. Street Superintendent Keith Burrett briefed that he talked with the paint dealer and hoping they are able to get an order put in so they can start painting the crosswalks. Police Chef Paul Wagner briefed that there is an issue with humidity in the PD building.

City Manager Gary Boden invited Lyle Tekippe with Fehr Graham to speak regarding the upcoming street project. Lyle provided an update and stated that they are hoping progress will be underway in the next few weeks. It was discussed that easements are currently going out to homeowner's to sign.

Mayor Pat Stone briefed that Tony Baxter asked him to relay some information. He would like the city to review the 28E Agreement with the fire board. He requested for Arvid to attend the meetings or pick a different council member to attend. He also shared support for the meat packing plant. The Mayor also mentioned he has received comments about having a dog park and that someone from Aveka asked if there could be a contact person for them to get updates from.

Council member Rausch briefed that he has been fielding calls regarding the meat processing plant and reiterates to those residents that there has not been an update. He also checked in with some contacts in Lime Springs and heard from a couple of people who knowing what they know now, they would advise to not have the plant.

Allamakee County Emergency Management Coordinator Corey Snitker provided a follow up of the Hazard Mitigation Plan that the city previously discussed. He mentioned he plans to stop back in the fall to discuss it in further detail. No action taken.

Police Chief Wagner discussed the Tahoe purchase and status of the USDA grant.
