Under Department Reports:

Street Superintendent, Keith Burrett, briefed that the department is getting estimates on the cost to fix a hole in the storm sewer, at the curb and gutter, by Waukon State Bank drive-through. There's also a culvert pipe in front of the Street shop that needs to be fixed.

Police Chief, Paul Wagner, briefed that there is progress on the Police Station renovation project. The department is getting situated in their temporary location at City Hall. The new vehicle is in use. Officer Harrington will attend his first in person Academy training this week.

Park, Recreation and Wellness Director, Jeremy Strub, briefed that current programs include adult kickball, flag (1st – 4th grades) and tackle football (5th – 6th grades), and volleyball (3rd – 6th grades). A lot of cleaning and staining is getting completed at the park. He briefed that the Freedom rock was unveiled, with over 100 people in attendance. Memberships at the Wellness Center are getting back to normal. There will be more discussion on the HVAC system.

City Manager, Gary Boden, spoke on behalf of Water/Sewer Superintendent, Jim Cooper, to share that the Hidden Creek Estates Lift Station is up and running. Boden feels it would be beneficial to utilize TIF (Tax Increment Financing) to fund a water main on 1st Street NW. It will simultaneously assist in development of the duplexes across the street from the Police Station.

Mayor, Pat Stone, reported on a conversation shared with an AVEKA representative. He expects a report or plan to be shared in the next week or so. Stone is hoping the presentation regarding the Tierney building will be available for the special meeting to be held next week. He shared that he gave the Key to the City away to Ed Asner last Sunday. Asner had attended a movie festival in Spring Grove earlier that day and came to eat dinner at Green Valley afterwards.

City Manager, Gary Boden, made a recommendation to hire Sarah Snitker as City Clerk effective October 5th. He stated that her contract is very similar to the one drawn up for current City Clerk, Lana Snitker.
